QUARTEIRA & VILAMOURA, ALGARVE

Prices are a guide only...call our expert staff for best prices and availability

Quarteira - from a simple fishing village, Quarteira has become one of the major tourist centres in the Algarve, famous for its golden beaches, its high quality fish and for its woods of stone pine. The beach is beautiful and there are plenty of eating places with the Avenida Infante de Sagres running along behind it, which you can call on for refreshments. For the energetic there are water sports of all kinds, karting, bowling, tennis and horse riding all close to hand. Quarteira offers a huge range of culinary delights, with the emphasis, of course, on the beautifully fresh fish and shellfish dishes such as grilled sardines, "cataplanas", "caldeirada" (a kind of fish stew) and prawns, to name but a few.

Direct flights to Faro from Dublin, Cork & Shannon. Flight duration approx 3 hrs

Vilamoura - although dubbed as the coastal paradise of the southern part of Portugal, Vilamoura is not only all about sun, sea and sand. More to its breathtaking beaches, there also lay an extensive range of tourism gems that never fail to capture every traveller's heart. Think of golfing in top-notch golf courses, cruising on a yacht while spotting dolphins, immersing in captivating historical attractions, or gambling in a casino — and you get the picture. There is something for everyone in Vilamoura.

Direct flights to Faro from Dublin, Cork & Shannon. Flight duration approx 3 hrs.

Estoril - an exclusive resort town long recognized for attracting royalty, Estoril lies less than 20 miles west of Lisbon and is probably best known for its casino. One of Europe's largest, it was the inspiration for the first of Ian Fleming's James Bond books, "Casino Royale." Estoril's mild winters and warm sunny summers make it a perfect beach town, with one of the nicest, Praia do Tamariz, lying right next to the casino. So famous has Estoril become that the local coast is now called Costa do Estoril.

Sesimbra - a pretty fishing and resort town that is located on the southern side of the Setubal Peninsula, 40km south of Lisbon. Sesimbra is situated on a stunning coastline of beautiful beaches, jagged cliffs and crystal clear waters. With its little cobbled streets, local restaurants and bars, Sesimbra is a lovely place to relax. Also surrounded Sesimbra are the rolling hills of the Serra da Arrabida national park, ideal for hiking and cycling.

Cascais - has rocketed from sleepy fishing village to much-loved summertime playground of wave-frolicking. Its trio of golden bays attracts sun-worshipping holidaymakers. There's plenty of post-beach life, with winding lanes leading to small museums, cool gardens, a shiny marina and a pedestrianised old town dotted with designer boutiques and alfresco fish restaurants. After dark, lively bars fuel the party.

Take a Cunard voyage and you'll enjoy the renowned elegance, spacious luxury and excellent service that have attracted discerning travellers to our famous ships for many decades.

There are many calls along our ships' routes that evoke extra awe or excitement. Some arrivals are just wonderfully scenic like the fjord route into Flaam, the Caribbean island of St Maarten or the Greek gem Mykonos. Then there are cities which revel in their legendary grandeur, like Monte Carlo, St Petersburg and Quebec City. Others are incredibly atmospheric, such as Tallinn, Cagliari and Venice.

Sail from Southampton to the Adriatic Coast on Queen Elizabeth, the Norwegian Fjords on Queen Victoria or across the Atlantic to New York on the iconic Queen Mary 2.

Jackie, our Cunard expert has taken a Transatlantic Crossing on the Queen Mary 2. Why not talk to her for advice?

“It was an amazing experience to retrace the immigration route and sail past the Manhattan skyline on this iconic ocean Liner; something I would definitely recommend for the bucket list!”
