

Travel Essentials

Make copies and take screenshots of all your documentation.

- Passport and/ or visa
- Debit and credit cards/cash
- Travel Insurance: To avoid forgetting, you should buy your travel insurance immediately once your trip is booked. Click here to buy online with our partner, Blue Insurance.
- EHIC: European Health Insurance Card. We highly recommend getting this card. You'll receive free or reduced healthcare when travelling in Europe with it.
- Driver's Licence (If required)
- Medication: Make sure to check if your medication is allowed in certain countries, and that you have all required documentation.
- Booking Confirmation and Boarding Passes. Make sure you're checked in, everything's loaded onto your apps, screengrabbed, saved and printed.
- Travel pillow, ear plugs and eye mask.
- Make sure to note the address of your hotel or accommodation. It's a good idea to have this written down too, in case of technology failure.
- Emergency contact details- again, always a good idea to have multiple copies/ versions on you.

Travel Gadgets

Gadget insurance is great for peace of mind while travelling. Get yours through our website with Blue Insurance.

Clothes

Our top tip: set aside your travelling clothes too, to make departure day a breeze. Make sure to double-check your baggage allowance so you're not caught for extra charges at the airport.

- Underwear and socks
- Casualwear
- Footwear (Runners, flip flops, sandals, dressy shoes)
- Beachwear

- Sarong or scarf for sun protection at the beach
- Eveningwear
- Sweatshirt, jacket, or cardigan- in case it gets cool in the evenings.
- Sleepwear

Pool & Beach Accessories

- Beach bag for holding:
- Swimwear
- Sunglasses
- Sunhat
- Sunscreen and lip balm
- Cleansing wipes, hand sanitiser, tissue
- Something to read and music to listen to... don't forget your headphones!

Toiletries

It should go without saying at this stage, but we'll say it anyway! Make sure you adhere to the security rules with all your toiletries and beauty accessories. Ensuring you're prepared to go through security will make your (and other passengers') journey even better. Taking a connecting flight? Make sure to check the requirements at all stages of your route.
